Rather lovely, even if a bit short, game. Playtime is around 1,5 to 2 hours.

What I didn't like is how you just walk around the clockhouse looking for items to pick up and conversations to engage without actually knowing what to do.. settings dont work. 10V10 would play again. Great game, but the game goes into not responding then it claim's that the game crashed, I have to restart the game.. Simple, yet quite enjoyable. In this VR experience you find yourself in a jet back, given the freedom to roam around the city. Be warned this game may induce nausea and vomiting in those with little VR experience. Making sure your head is always pointing in the direction of travel will help alleviate some of this. This title also includes some small game aspects, including shooting targets and racing through hoops. Quite a solid download for the cost.. Despite i'm a casual player, i really loved this one: there's everything for who prefers a well-done storytelling, so many choices that you could simplify the story... Or complicate, who knows? A well-organized survival mode and a good tool crafting section complete the cold setting of the game! I suggest you this, because it's worth it!

Short, but sweet. Very creepy atmosphere.. It's still a great game. Sadly no one plays it anymore. I can only wish that good times will come and I will be able to play this again.. This is the best Creeper World game ever made. It is worth it at any price, but especially worth it now if you buy it during the Steam Winter Sale as you can get it the Anniversary Edition discount price or as part of the KnuckleCracker bundle. It has nothing in common with CW2, but if you've played CW3 you will recognize all the units instantly. You can get through the campaign in a long weekend; it has 20 maps. However, where this game shines is the replayability function-- every single day-- every single day has a new map. And you can go back and play old maps regardless of when you buy it, so if you want to play the map for July 4th, 1976, that's in here somewhere. And you post your best time online to compare/compete with the best times of others.

Gameplay:

For those who has never played Creeper World, it's basically a Tower Defense game. In every map you have a base called Odin City, and you have to build outward from there. Instead of random monsters, the bad guy is watery, ocean-like 'Creeper' that keeps rising; you have mortars and drones to beat it back. However, they cost energy and so you will also spend a great deal of time building energy farms and reactors, all of which always have to connect back to Odin City.

The game is fun, exciting, and highly addictive. Plus it's got a new visual upgrade for Steam so it looks far nicer than the original version. Well worth getting!. Absolute piece of art. Did you expect something other than that? Scroll back on up and take a look at the "About" section xD

Refund imminent.
